

REMUDA

DEDICATION

Eleven years ago Mr. Robert Bede became a member of the faculty at Walther. In these past eleven years Mr. Bede has shown that he is dedicated. To Christ and to the school which he has served.

Beginning as an Algebra teacher, Mr. Bede now instructs students in the commercial arts: typing, shorthand, notehand, and bookkeeping. He uses an unusual approach to teaching typing: he has his students type to music. Students near room 202 might think they are hearing a music appreciation class.

Mr. Bede has a formidable list of responsibilities to his credit. He is sponser of the Kiwanis Key Club, he was sponser to the Junior Red Cross for many years, and he also handles the ticket sales at Walther for such events as the musicals and Homecoming. In addition to these responsibilities, he is interested in his students. This interest is shown by his placement of students in various commercial jobs. Most important of all, however, is his willingness to serve in whatever capacity he is most needed.

For his dedication to Walther and its students, the senior class of 1968 proudly dedicates the REMUDA to Mr. Robert Bede.

Do you remember how, on a racing track, every competitor runs, but only one wins the prize? Well, you ought to run with your minds fixed on winning that prize! Every competitor in athletic events goes into serious training. Athletes will take tremendous pains - for a fading crown of leaves. But our contest is for an eternal crown that will never fade.

I run the race then with determination. I am no shadowboxer; I really fight! I am my body's sternest master, for fear that when I have preached to others I should myself be disqualified.

I Corinthians 9: 24-27
J. B. Phillips Trans.

The typical school day of a Walther student contains events that are humorous as well as those which are mentally stimulating. The day, for some, begins with the jolting ring of an alarm clock at 5:00 A.M. Others may take it easy by being gently wakened at 7:45 by their mothers. No matter which method is used, the student usually gets to Walther a minute or so before school starts. The pupil becomes involved with many activities as soon as he steps into the building. The varying activities offered are designed both for the enlarging of the student's mind and for his enjoyment.

Before the 8:15 bell rings, the students of Walther try to use their few moments of freedom to the best possible advantage. Couples can be seen huddled together in the far ends of the corridors. Occasionally, small groups are observed leaving the premises to have breakfast at Binomoes. Senior girls congregate in the southwest corner of the cafeteria, making final preparations for the day's classes and gossiping about everything. Underclassmen are busily adding to their repertoire of pranks.

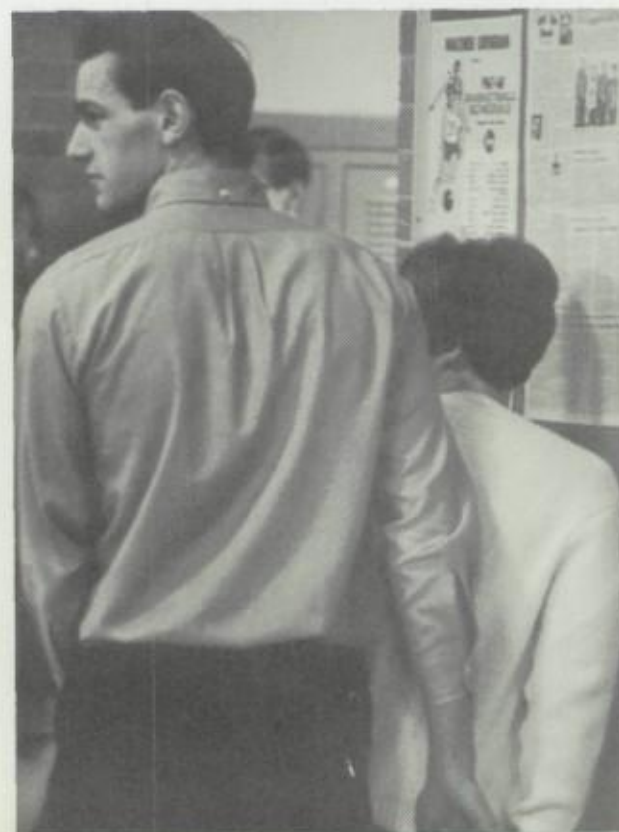

During these fifteen minutes before 8:15, certain necessary obligations must be met. There are those who must make a quick trip to the bookstore to buy a book or notebook required for a class the day before. Some people must invent an excuse for their tardiness to a first period class as they approach Mr. Zemke's office. Others are kept busy by the constant prodding of Mrs. Butcher who would really appreciate a down payment on some tuition.

Throughout the seven periods of the day the Walther student is wrapped up in the activities of his classes. Persons deeply engrossed in last minute cramming for test can be observed during all seven periods. Then too, students must be prepared at all times for a quiz, for the "pop" quiz is a technique used by almost every teacher. Every class can seem extremely fascinating or terribly dull to a student, depending on the attitude of the student himself. Walther, however, is very fortunate to have so many pupils who are enthusiastic about all their studies, and so many teachers who conduct challenging and interesting classes.

Although most of the school day is spent in diligent study and constant concentration, there are always some lighter incidents to liven up the day. Practically every class has one or two boys who make it to their chairs with less than ten seconds to spare after walking their girl to her next period class. Occasionally the hour is broken up by a hallguard bringing someone a little white pass to the office. Finally lunch period arrives when the students continue the gossip that was so rudely interrupted at 8:15; and then back to the afternoon study grind.

After the closing prayer is spoken, the halls of Walther become a busy thoroughfare for the hurried people as they hasten away from the school. Many students are in a rush to catch their bus, whether it be a West Town or a bread truck. Others run for their cars in order to leave the parking lot before the onslaught of students arrives. While many people are in a frenzied rush to get away from school, there are those who remain. Many hours after school are spent in Cross Country, Basketball, or Track practice, as well as in club meetings and play rehearsals.

What Shall We Do Tomorrow?

THE WEEKEND WALTHER WISHED UPON A STAR

Walther's Disneyland Homecoming provided the opportunity for many people to wish many things. Wishes for a beautiful queen, a date, a winning team, were just a few that built up anticipation for the weekend. The fun of the pep rally, the fantasy of the parade, the fight for victory gained, and finally the Smorgasboard dinner and dance made all the wishes of Homecoming '67 come true.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Providing a means for student administration relationships, the Student Council meets every other week to try to solve our school's problems. Consisting of four seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, and two freshman, this group is guided by Mr. Zemke. Besides trying to solve the school's domestic problems, the Student Council sponsors numerous social activities, including the Fall Fun Festival, Freshman Get-Acquainted Party, Hayride, and Gym Night.

Student Council Representatives, L. TO R., ROW 1: A. Kautz, N. Kamin, R. Becker, R. Kruse. ROW 2: S. Keuer, J. Arndt, K. Gilge, H. Bouman, C. Anders, D. Kent, T. Halter.

What is the National Honor Society? It is more than an aggregation of all the "brains" in Walther. Although it is definitely a very important quality to have if one seeks admission to the National Honor Society, the candidate must possess such qualities as leadership, service, scholastic achievement, and good character. He also must possess Christian qualities. The National Honor Society is the "cream of the crop" of Walther's students, both in Christian qualities and scholarship.

REMUDA

"Please be a patron for the Remuda. The small pictures are only a dime." These words along with the chimes of Big Ben, were some of the sounds heard around the Remuda booth at this year's Fall Fun Festival. This year members of the Remuda did a great deal more than sell pictures and try to get patrons. They sponsored a bake sale, a Valentine's Dance, and sold refreshments at the spring play. The long sessions after school, cold McDonald's Hamburgers and warm cokes were all combined to produce one yearbook. Under the leadership of Mrs. Ewald and Miss Borman, the staff learned that a yearbook can't be hatched from an egg; it takes work. However, when the deadline was met the memory of the drudgery disappeared in sighs of relief and satisfaction with a job well done.

These ambitious reporters round up the news for their fellow cowhands. This year, several new methods of corralling were introduced: a new printer, smaller paper, final typing is done by the printer, and more editorials. Due to the fine performance of the staff, poets and writers from the home bunkhouse have put on a splendid rodeo this year.

KEY CLUB

"Peanuts, buy some peanuts!", seems to be the Key Club's favorite saying. However selling peanuts is not the Key Club's only activity — they also sponsored the candy drive this year, collected for the March of Dimes, participated in Key Club activities with other high schools, and helped with janitorial work at Arlington Old People's Home.

TEEN AGE REPUBLICANS

Led by the effervescent Reverend Walter Kalbhen, the Teen Age Republicans follow the political trails, naturally concentrating on the Republican Party. The activities of this club include sponsoring a booth at the Fall Fun Festival, conducting a poll among the students at Walther concerning the Republican candidates for the various offices, and sparking student enthusiasm for the Republican Party.

The Girls' Athletic Club? Well, that is what happened at the G.A.C. sponsored turnabout Halloween Dance and Monday's Night at the Horror Movies! Other G.A.C. "happenings" this year were: Mother-Daughter bowling, picnic at Thatcher Woods, farewell party for Mrs. Popp, Splash Party, P.J. party (no boys at this one), and annual Cedar Lake picnic. All these activities were well attended by the female (and honorary male) members of one of Walther's largest clubs, the G.A.C.

*No! No!
Never! Never!
Uh! Uh! Uh!*

Hey Kimosabi! Rah, Rah Pioneers! Rah, Rah Pioneers! Pioneers are Rah-rahs! Those are only two of the many cheers of Walther's most enthusiastic and school-spirited group, the Pep Club. Although many of these cheers were extemporaneous, they were given so spiritedly that one wouldn't know how quickly they were conceived. Sitting together as a group for both football and basketball games, the Pep Club demoralized Walther's opponents as they gave Walther's athletes moral support. One vocal baritone member of this organization exemplifies the Pep Club spirit with, "Gimme a . . ."

Under the leadership of Mr. Hoger, the Lettermen's Club is composed of the best Walther athletes. The main function of this group is service: ushering at the basketball games, being members of the "chain gang" at the football games, and selling refreshments at the basketball games. The highlight of the letterman's year is when he helps initiate the new lettermen at the school picnic.

How well can you mate? Checkmate, that is. The Chess Club members developed several methods of checkmating their opposition this year, which they "pawnd" off on chess clubs from surrounding schools. This club has become more active this year, under the guidance of Mr. Jacke, and is prospering. Let's hope its "kingly" reign lasts!

An Art Club at Walther? Yes, that sketchy dream has finally come true! The club was created by Mr. Dorn's guiding strokes. This was a much-needed organization, as was discovered when they produced the funny character heads, and Tinkerbell's castle for Homecoming. Artistic abilities were also used in decorations for other activities. Some of the members' talent was even displayed in Walther's own art gallery - the upstairs and downstairs trophy cases.

The Drama Club's main objective is to offer the students of Walther the opportunity to express themselves dramatically. Acting, lighting, makeup, stage art, publicity, and other production committees are the various areas in which a student may use his talents. This year, The Little Dog Laughed and Pygmalion were presented by the Drama Club. Many a seventh hour class was entertainingly interrupted by excerpts from these two plays. Consisting of over sixty students this fine group operated under the direction of Mr. Rush, Miss Hynous, Mrs. Heins and Mr. Reck. Although they were often hampered by technical problems, the students learned to use individual creativity in producing the two outstanding plays of the 1967-68 school year.

CHORUSES

An enthusiastic and well-talented group, the Freshman Chorus sings quite well. As they adjust to disciplined voice training this year, many of them will be ready for the A Capella in years to come.

Is it the "Song of Angels" that permeates the halls of Walther early on Wednesday mornings? No, it's only the Boys' Glee Club. Singing many types of songs ranging from religious to legendary, this group meets under the superb direction of Mr. Omer Reese. The Boys' Glee Club also participates in many of the concerts with the other fine vocal groups at Walther.

The Girls' Glee Club participates in the Christmas and Spring Concerts, and sings occasionally for chapel. Their excellent vocal talent was matched with sewing talent for this year's Christmas Concert, when the girls looked stunning in simple white dresses which they made themselves for the occasion. Complementing these dresses and adding to the Christmas spirit, the girls also wore red carnations.

A CAPPELLA — MADRIGAL

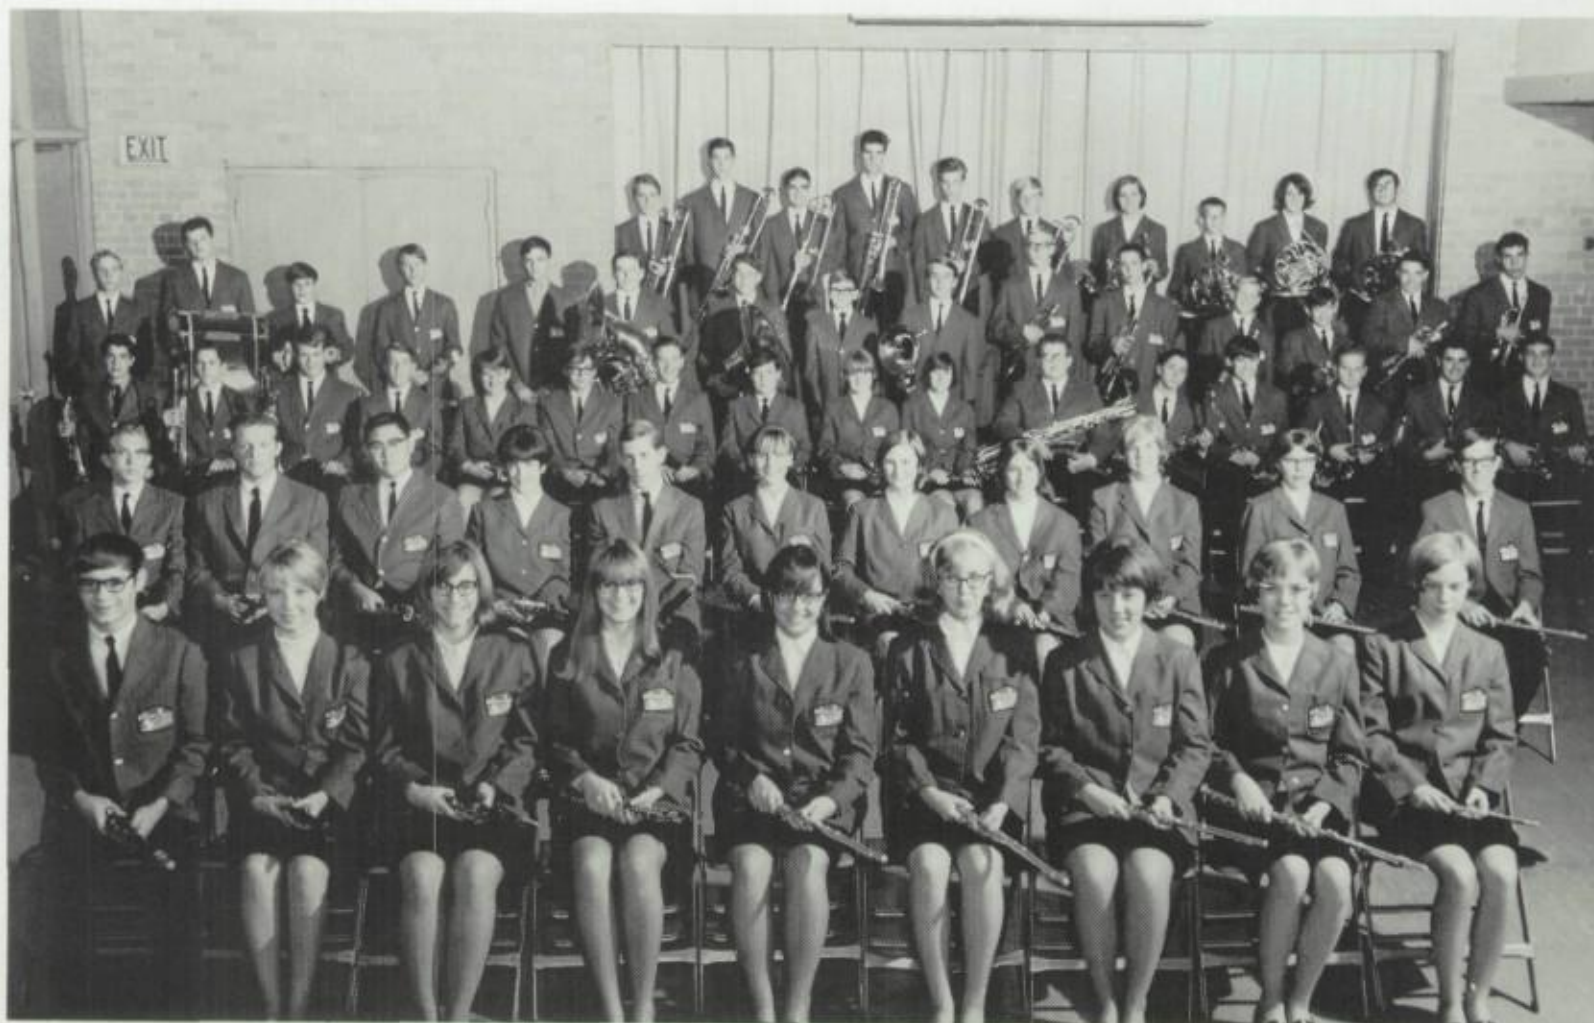

Under the leadership of Mr. Reese, the A Cappella Choir accomplishes a great deal. Meeting second period every day, this group sings both religious and secular songs. Aside from their frequent appearances at the Wednesday morning chapel services, the A Cappella Choir participates in many more inter- and extra-curricular activities. Many times they perform at area churches. For the Christmas season, the A Cappella teams up with the other vocal organizations at Walther to put on an outstanding performance. Their Sacred Concert is performed in conjunction with the Orchestra. The Spring Concert is presented by the A Cappella Choir, the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, and the Freshman Chorus. The major event of the year is the mammoth concert presented by the combined A Cappella Choirs and Bands of Luther North, Luther South, Milwaukee Luther, and Walther High Schools.

Meeting every Wednesday, the Madrigal is a select group of Walther's best vocalists. Under the leadership of Walther's musical director, Mr. Reese, this group performs selections which are specially arranged for the better trained vocalist. The selections which the Madrigal performs include folk, sacred, and popular songs. The Madrigal sang Christmas Carols at both Marshall Field's and at Nielsen's Restaurant, and they also perform at area churches.

Is there trouble in River City because of a band? No! Is there trouble at Walther because of a band? Well, maybe the students on the second floor have heard distorted tunes from the top ten as early as 8:15 A.M. in the morning coming from the band room. When they get down to business, though, they can practice Handel's "Water Music" with the moving spirit of 18th century musicians who once performed this work.

ORCHESTRA

Are those the beautifully lilting strains of stringed instruments? An orchestra at Walther? Highly improbable! However improbable, there is an orchestra at Walther.

Meeting seventh hour of every day, this organization encompasses instruments not included in the band: the bass, the cello, the viola, and the violin. They participate in concerts with the band including the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert, and the Band Concert. They also participate with the choir in the Sacred Concert. In the third year of their existence they are an extraordinarily fine group.

WALTHER'S VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

(1) Full of pep, the Walther Broncos make their appearance on the field. (2) Coaches Herman Zemke (left) and Warren Hoyer survey the playing field, watching the two teams fight for possession of the football. (3) The squad intently watches the action as (4) Brent Hanson (40) grinds our short yardage with the help of a block by Chris Tengblad (73). (5) Victory is won. The players relax at the dressing room door.

BRONCOS BURST INTO ACTION

The 1967 varsity football season was another astounding success for Coach Warren Hoyer. His team posted an amazing 5-3 record and finished third in the tough Private School League. The starting players were almost all seniors with many years of experience behind them. They won their first four games by easy margins and thrilled Walther's returning alumni with a 19-13 victory over North Park on Homecoming weekend. After this climax, the season ended with two heart-breaking losses to Luther North and South. The major setback for Walther's team which ruined their chance for a PSL championship was a serious knee injury to veteran Doug Dumler in the Wheaton game. Although Doug played only four games, he scored 31 points on five touchdowns, second only to Brent Hanson's work of 49 points. Leading rushers were Al Curry (338 yards), Brent Hanson (316 yards) and John Knee (268 yards). Steve Kent gained 700 yards on nine touchdown passes as the team's leading quarterback. Three Walther players, center Bob Hanson, tackle Roy Heinrich, and half-back Al Curry, were voted to the all-conference first team.

1. Sideline strategy - Darrell Schultz (63), Steve Kent (11), Al Curry (31), and Coach Hoyer.
2. The major set-back - an injury to Doug Dumler.
3. Red-dog - Ed Upstone (85), Jim Bostler (80), Brent Hanson (40), Glynn Frankland (65), and John Knee (32).
4. In hot pursuit - Ken Grebasch (64) and John Knee (32).

1967 FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

Walther's Frosh-Soph football team withstood the perennial rivalry of the Private School League to finish in third place. Their overall 2-6 record showed the tough competition the Broncos faced. Luke Schnake, co-captain and quarterback of the squad, scored 31 points and completed 25 passes. The other co-captain, Dennis Kent, led the team with 277 yards gained in 62 carries for 26 points. John Spandikow gained 223 yards in 58 carries and Paul Schrilla carried the ball eight times for 139 yards. Center, Mark Holstein, was voted most valuable player. The freshmen outscored their opponents 47 to 27 for a 3-1 record. Coaches Thomas Nahnsen and Elmer Wuensche expect a fine season next year.

The 1967 cross-country team showed vast improvement over the previous year as it compiled a 4-3 league record. The squad started slowly because of some unfortunate injuries and they dropped their first three decisions to Timothy, Illiana, and Luther South. Then the Broncos came alive at their first home meet as they sloshed through a muddy course to post an impressive victory over Timothy before a large crowd of Walther rooters. The harriers continued their winning ways, sweeping the rest of their meets until they encountered speedy Chicago Christian. This was a heart-breaking loss not only as it was the Broncos' first on their home course, but also as it erased the team's hope of capturing third place in the league. The team bounced back, however, and took third in the PSL finals. Competing with thirty teams in three inches of snow, they placed 17th in the IHSA district meet. Chuck Dreessen placed 19th in a field of 189 runners.

Steve Levan, Bob Prisching, and Peter Lucht joined last year's veterans to give the varsity the added punch they needed. On the squad for their fourth year were Steve Keuer, Al Kautz, and Bruce Krause. With seven returning varsity runners, the cross-country team can expect to have an experienced nucleus.

1. Leading the pack — Chuck Dreessen.
2. Determination — Steve Keuer.
3. An easy lead — Bruce Krause.
4. Sprinting across the finish — Chuck Dreessen.
5. Discussing strategy — Al Kautz, Steve Levan, Bob Rosin, Dean Goldbeck.

ON THE MOVE

There are many things to recall from the 1967-68 season. The Broncos captured second place in the PSL tourney, losing a heart-breaking title game to Luther North. Fluctuating, the team seemed to have trouble with smaller schools and, in contrast, put on outstanding displays of basketball against larger schools such as Lake Park.

This was a year of firsts for the Broncos: the first home game on the new glass backboards and the first appearance in the IHSA and the state tournament.

Among the outstanding players on the squad were captain and MVP Al Kautz who led the team in rebounds with 278 and had an 11 point average, Brent Hanson with 365 points for a 16 per game pace, Doug Dumler with 193 rebounds, Roy Heinrich with 188 rebounds, and Steve Kent.

EXCITING CLIMAX TO THE VARSITY SEASON

The Broncos finished the 1967-68 season in a series of exciting games. (1) Al Kautz and Doug Dumler were the leading rebounders of the team. (2) The quick passing and fine shooting of Steve Kent and Brent Hanson gave the fans a special thrill. (3) It was the experience of Coach "Bulldog" Nahnsen, however, that molded the team into a smoothly working unit.

KNEELING: D. Kent, R. Heinrich, J. Kelm, J. Hoppe, M. Eggerding, M. Kamin, G. Surges, P. Schrilla, and Coach Rasmussen.

In his first year as frosh-soph basketball coach, Wayne Rasmussen compiled an excellent 9-5 league record within the PSL. His characteristic stress on fundamentals, especially running, molded the team into a smooth-running unit. Mark Eggerding, the team captain, registered a total of 243 points with an 11.1 average per game. Jim Hoppe led the squad in rebounds with 214 and also showed a good outside shot, hitting 50% from the floor for 229 points. Mark Kamin, Dennis Kent, and Chris Possehl also scored over 100 points. During the entire season Walther averaged more points than their opponents for an overall team record of 11-11.

This year's freshman basketball team was indeed a pleasant surprise. In his first year as coach, Mr. Lutkehus set an excellent 9-1 record in the Private School League and finished first in both the seasons and the final freshman tournament. Allan Buchholz led the squad in scoring with 251 points for a 13.2 average per game. Rick Pygman averaged 12.1 for 230 points. Dave Heinrich led the team in rebounding with 197. Guard Barry Fleming was voted most valuable player.

Walther's wrestling team can best be described as an aggregation of champions. That's right — out of the twelve weight classes Walther had five champions: Ted Johnson at 112 pounds, Steve Keuer at 120 pounds, Ed Bussert at 127 pounds, Mark Holstein at 138 pounds, and Ray McCullough at heavyweight. In the regular season, our grapplers had a 7-2-1 league record and an overall mark of 12-3-1. Ted Johnson was undefeated this year with a 19-0-0 mark but he unfortunately was knocked out in the first round of the state meet. Other outstanding members of Walther's team were Steve Keuer, Ray McCullough, Merv Reed, and sophomore Jim Benney. Since Walther is losing only four of its lettermen next year and there is a promising crop of freshmen and sophomores, we can look for continuing success under the guidance of Coach Hoyer.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Even when Walther's athletic fortunes fell, the spirit of the cheerleaders never waived, and at the pep assemblies they made special efforts to show the athletes that the whole school was supporting them. This year's varsity squad was led by Captain Nancy Radtke; Nancy Kamin, Laura Wahl, Helene Bouman, Julie Lams, and Pat Phelan were Nancy's indispensable "squadmates."

TENNIS TEAM SHOWS PROMISE

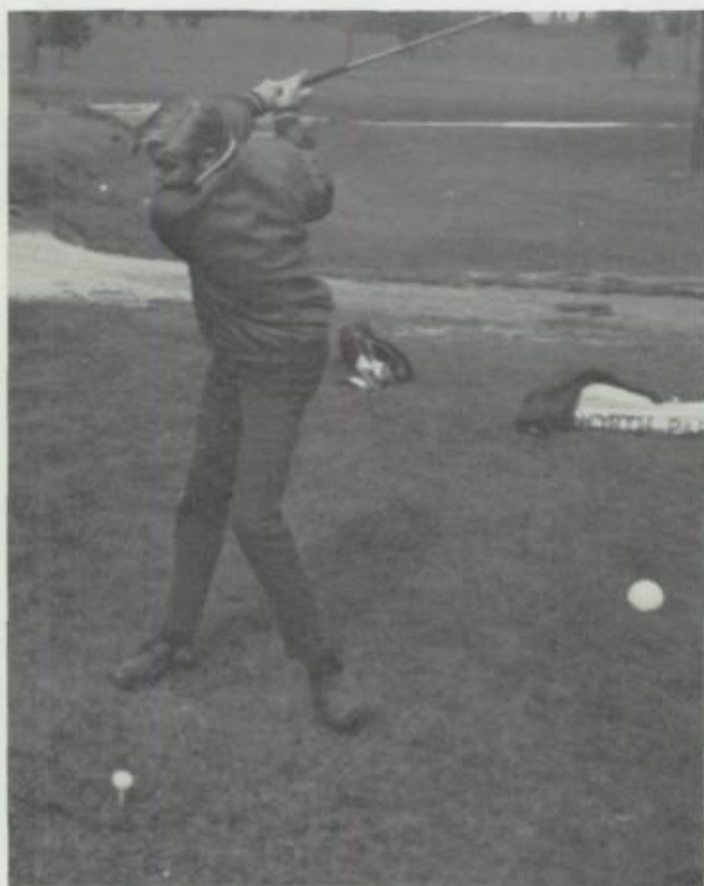

Walther's tennis team jumped off to a good start in the '68 season winning quick matches from Timothy, Luther North and Luther South. In his first season as coach, Mr. Weerts optimistically expected a very high finish in the Private School League to add valuable points toward the coveted all-sports trophy.

GOLFERS SWING

The 1968 golf team looked toward improving last year's record. The squad had a well-balanced nucleus with several returning lettermen. In addition there were several talented rookies including Coach Guettler, who made the switch to golf from tennis. Standing with Coach Guettler in the picture above are Mike Poellet, John Scheiwe, Greg Meyer, Bill Hansen, Rich Van Atta, and Brian Novota. Dave Ambroze, Jim Stuenkel, and John Butcher are kneeling.

This season began with a pleasant surprise as the squad started off on the right foot trying North Park, the 1967 champions. With Mike Poellet, Dave Ambroze, Rich Van Atta and John Butcher leading the team, one thing was certain: there was never a dull moment at Glendale Country Club, their home course.

TRACK'S 5 YEAR DYNASTY

The varsity track team lost no time in demonstrating their skills. Arriving late at the PSL relay competition and having no time to properly warm up, the Broncos, nevertheless, quickly captured the first place trophy. Several school records fell at every meet. Doug Dumler entered the discus competition for the first time in his life and threw it 140 $\frac{2}{3}$ feet breaking the school record by about 10 feet. Chuck Dreessen broke his own record with a 4:42.8 mile. The most amazing record is Walther's domination of the PSL. A first place finish this year would be the fifth consecutive track championship. In the picture on the left, several of the Walthers stars relax after a meet.

STRIDING TO VICTORY

Along with its excellent record, the track team boasted its many individual senior stars. Chuck Dreesen (1) was the leading miler in the league, far out ahead of any competition. Al Curry (2) led the squad in the jumping events. Tom Harrison (3) was also the league's leading hurdler followed closely by teammate Brian Krause. Al Kautz (4) was our "jack-of-all-trades" running the 100 yard dash, the 220 and 440 meters, and the mile relay, and throwing the discus. (5) A high point of the season was Walther's first place upset at the Lisle Invitational. The victorious team is shown with Coach Hoger holding the trophy.

Our Broncos are headed for another fine baseball season. Pitching ace, Ed Upstone, led the squad to several decisive victories against Luther South, North Park, and Wheaton. Centerfielder and lead-off man Brent Hanson, sparked Walther's offense, spraying extra base hits around the diamond. Juniors John Kroll (1st base), Larry Wayne (short stop), Phil Schuster (2nd base), and Jim Bostler (left field) made up most of the starting nine. Sophomores Chris Possehl (3rd base) and Dennis Kent (catcher) also started regularly. The experience and vigorous drilling of Coaches Rasmussen and Lutkehus were the key factors in Walther's success story. (1) Ed Upstone shows us his "stuff" from the mound. (2) The Broncos watch second baseman Phil Schuster in the batter's box.

OUR BRONCOS "PLAY BALL!"

(1) Paul Schrilla, a sophomore, backed up Upstone in the pitching department. (2) Number 13, Roy Heinrich, takes a swipe at an inside pitch.

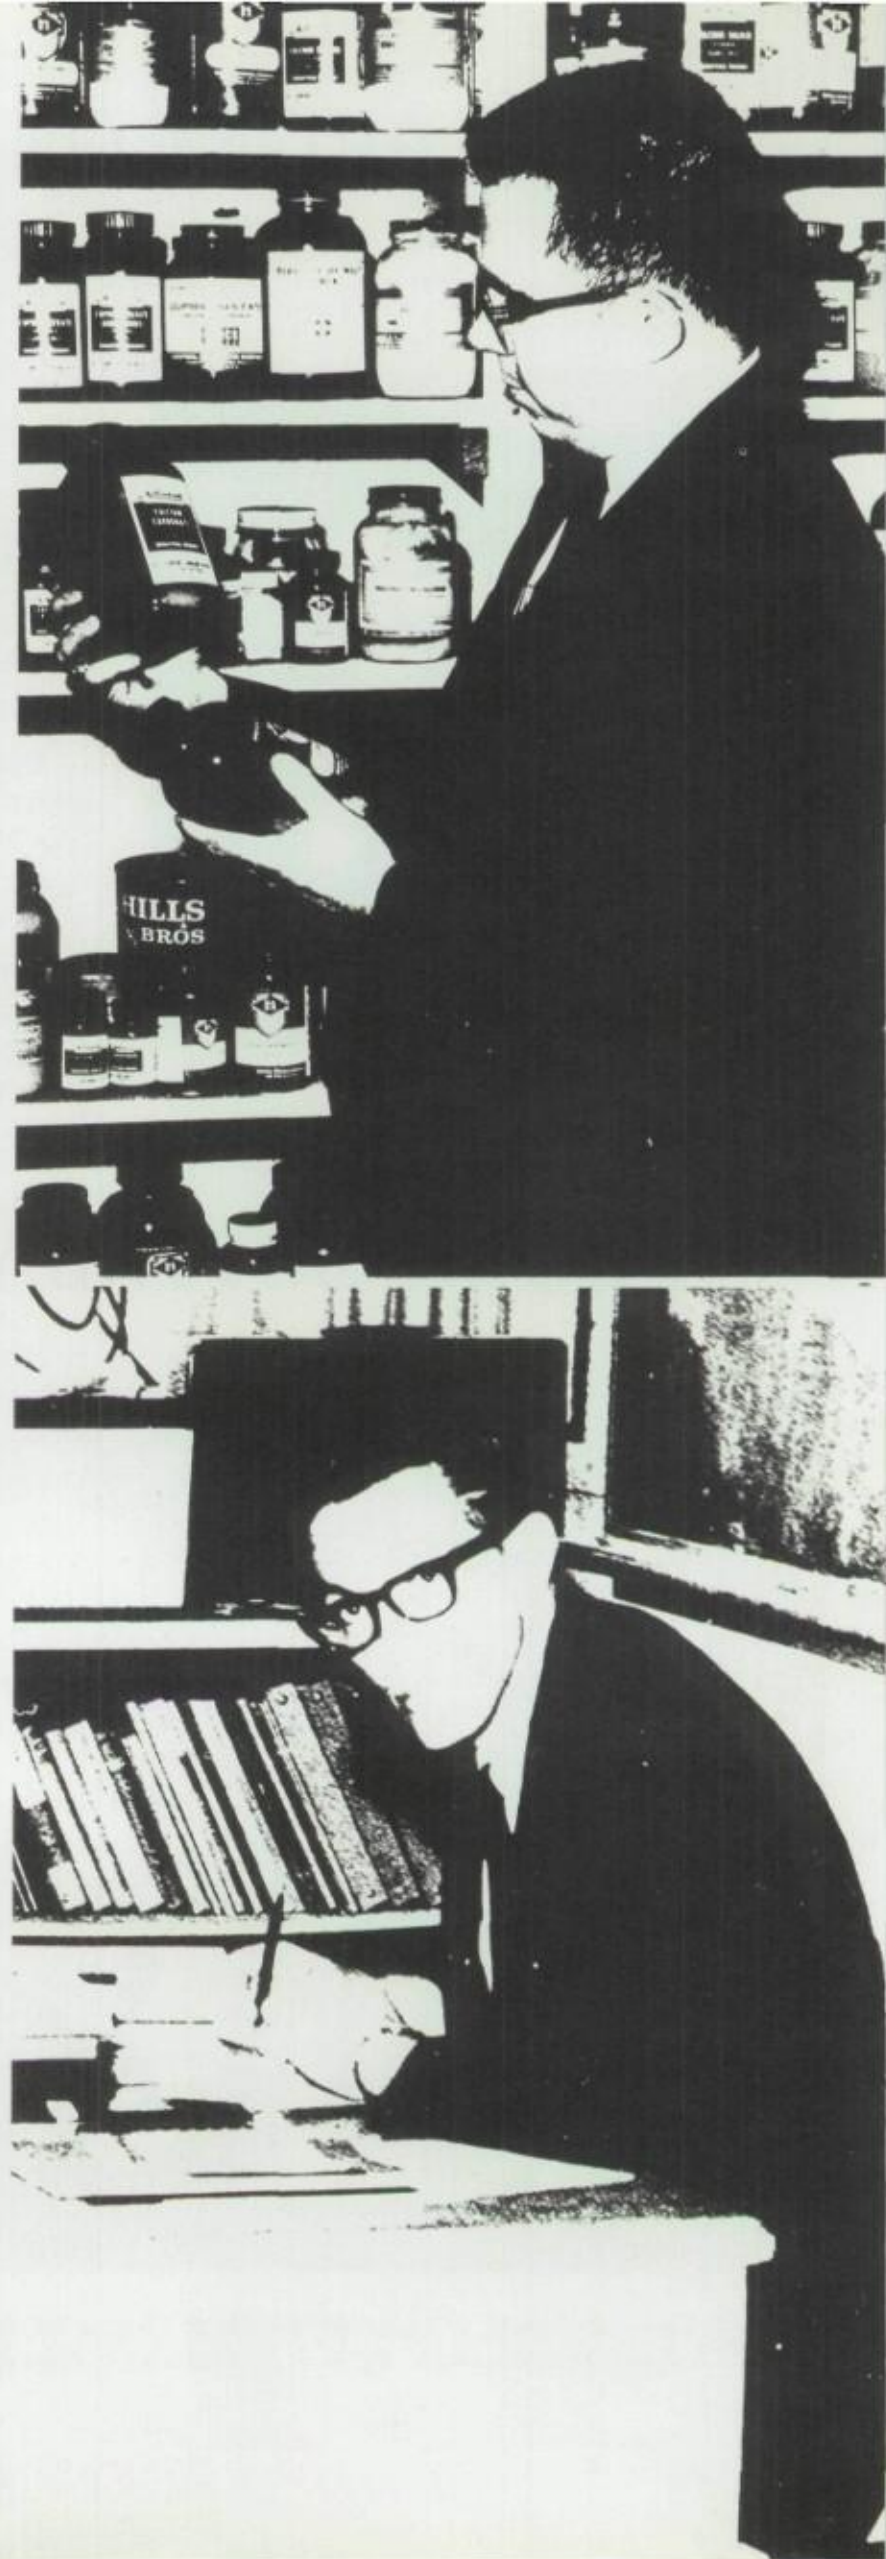

Coach Tom Reck was given the job of training the Frosh-Soph baseball team and developing future Walther stars. The expanded schedule gave the team ample opportunity to develop their baseball skills.

"We are great, we are fine, we're the class of '69!" is the cry of the juniors. How great are the 69'ers? Well, they can build a float which flies (or is it topples?) high to victory; they were the second graduating class of Walther to get round class rings; they sign the Bismarck poster in Frau Ewald's room; and they struggle through Math III class. How fine are the 69'ers? Almost 40% of their class is on the honor roll and honorable mention; they brave their way through college entrance tests; they act like under-upperclassmen now; they can get into more trouble — at Peabody's tomb, for example. Let's hear it for the 69'ers!

Geometry, German, Latin, Physical Science were some new courses for last year's Frustrated Freshmen who became this year's Sophisticated Sophomores. The Sophomores expressed their year's pent-up emotions as they dunked the heads of the Freshmen into pails of vinegar and flour at the annual Freshmen Initiation Party. The Freshmen then retaliated by giving their antagonists a better party, "A Happening," which saw Sue Wagner crowned queen and Cheryl Hansen and Bev Raschke named attendants. These Sophomores got their lumps from the Seniors in the Donkey Basketball Game, but they had a good time in losing. As these Sophomores look forward to the Spring picnic, they realize that before long they will be Jaunting Juniors.

Students claim the freshman matures with age; and as the year progressed, so did the inexperienced freshman. By the end of the semester, everyone was shocked by how much the freshmen had learned! The "freshies" decided it was totally unnecessary to lock their lockers between classes, and to wear a beanie or to be in bondage to a sophomore. Certainly they had trouble finding the music room in time for chorus, brought an elevator pass, and asked where the swimming pool is hidden. Who says "freshies" are dumb? A wise man once said, "Experience is the best teacher." Anyone can now see that our "freshies" have progressed under excellent tutelage.

at my

You bet! As each year passes, your life insurance age advantage diminishes and your insurability becomes more uncertain. Guarantee your insurability ... while you still can. Nature's attrition as well as military exposure makes some young people uninsurable, forces others to pay higher lifetime rates. Furthermore, your rate advantage, based on your present age, will never be better and eventually will vanish. Life insurance at your age is both a prudent necessity and a practical buy. Remember, no other life organization has so special a difference to offer you ... LOWER NET COST life insurance protection. Call your AAL campus representative today for complete details.
